

Civil Air Patrol
Wisconsin Wing
Stevens Point Composite Squadron
1st. Lt. Terese Barta, Commander
perrolovr@yahoo.com

July 24, 2011

Stevens Point Composite Squadron has new cadet commander

Stevens Point, Wis. The Stevens Point Composite Squadron has a new cadet commander. Cadet First Lieutenant David E. Feig relieves outgoing commander C/2d. Lt. Robert Kulp.

Cadet Feig, is the son of Barry and Holly Feig of Marshfield. He joined Civil Air Patrol in April of 2007 and served as cadet deputy commander for the past year. He received his Billy Mitchell Award in 2010.

C/1st. Lt. David E. Feig, CAP
Photo: 1st. Lt. Terese Barta

An active ground team member, Cadet Feig will soon complete his qualifications for ground team leader.

During the June 20 squadron meeting, Cadet Feig was awarded the squadron's Air Force Association Award for cadet officer of the year.

His nomination, by C/2d. Lt. Kulp states, "In the past year, C/1st Lt. David Feig has shown himself to be an officer who is not only an outstanding leader, but is also dedicated to excellence in everything he does. In the recent months, his efforts to train the cadets, support the Command staff and solve problems have shown an incredible commitment to his squadron and Civil Air Patrol as a whole."

This year, Cadet Feig will serve as a cadet staff member at the Illinois-Wisconsin Civil Air Patrol cadet encampment.